IAMES by the grace of God King of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, defender of the faith, &c. To the chiefe Conſtables, and Bailiffes of the Hundred of and to euery of them in our County of greeting. Wee will and command you that you warne, and cauſe to come xxiiij. honeſt, ſufficient, and diſcreet men of your ſaid Hundred, before the clerke of the Market of our houſhold, and through our Realme of England, or his lawfull Deputy within the Verge, aſwell within liberties as without to appeare at vpon being the day of next enſuing the date heereof, by eight of the clocke in the morning of the ſame day, Then and there aſwell to rate, ceaſſe, and taxe the prices of all kinde of Corne, Graine, Victualls, Horſe-meate, Lodging, and other things for the expences of our houſhold and traine in this our Progreſſe, as alſo to heare and to doe vpon their ſeuerall Oathes, as they and euery of them ſhall be, for vs, and on our behalfe required according to the lawes of our Realme. And moreouer that you giue warning to all petty Conſtables, of euery Pariſh and Hamlet within your ſaide Hundred, to command all Bakers, Brewers, Inholders, Tiplers, Tauerners, Mercers, Drapers, Chandlers, Butchers, Smithes, Weauers, Millers, Farmers, Corne-ſellers, and all other perſons within your ſaid Hundred, who haue, vſe, or occupy any manner of Weights or Meaſures, ſealed or not ſealed, euery of them to appeare with the ſame, the day, howre, and place aforeſaid, to ſee them duly examined with our Standard. And then the Bakers and Victuallers bread of all ſorts to bee ſhewed for the perfect intelligence of the true aſſize thereof: At which time and place aforeſaid, all your officers to bee preſent and attendant, to make due returne of this our commandement; together with the names and Surnames of the aforeſaid Iurors and Artificers into the court in due forme of writing, as yee will anſwere to the contrary at your perills. Dated vnder our Seale of the Office aforeſaid the day of in the yeere of our Raigne of England, &c.

IAMES by the grace of God King of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, defender of the faith, &c. To the chiefe Conſtables, and Bailiffes of the Hundred of and to euery of them in our County of greeting. Wee will and command you that you warne, and cauſe to come xxiiij. honeſt, ſufficient, and diſcreet men of your ſaid Hundred, before the clerke of the Market of our houſhold, and through our Realme of England, or his lawfull Deputy within the Verge, aſwell within liberties as without to appeare at vpon being the day of next enſuing the date heereof, by eight of the clocke in the morning of the ſame day, Then and there aſwell to rate, ceaſſe, and taxe the prices of all kinde of Corne, Graine, Victualls, Horſe-meate, Lodging, and other things for the expences of our houſhold and traine in this our Progreſſe, as alſo to heare and to doe vpon their ſeuerall Oathes, as they and euery of them ſhall be, for vs, and on our behalfe required according to the lawes of our Realme. And moreouer that you giue warning to all petty Conſtables, of euery Pariſh and Hamlet within your ſaide Hundred, to command all Bakers, Brewers, Inholders, Tiplers, Tauerners, Mercers, Drapers, Chandlers, Butchers, Smithes, Weauers, Millers, Farmers, Corne-ſellers, and all other perſons within your ſaid Hundred, who haue, vſe, or occupy any manner of Weights or Meaſures, ſealed or not ſealed, euery of them to appeare with the ſame, the day, howre, and place aforeſaid, to ſee them duly examined with our Standard. And then the Bakers and Victuallers bread of all ſorts to bee ſhewed for the perfect intelligence of the true aſſize thereof: At which time and place aforeſaid, all your officers to bee preſent and attendant, to make due returne of this our commandement; together with the names and Surnames of the aforeſaid Iurors and Artificers into the court in due forme of writing, as yee will anſwere to the contrary at your perills. Dated vnder our Seale of the Office aforeſaid the day of in the yeere of our Raigne of England, &c.

IAMES, by the grace of God, King of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland defender of the faith, &c. To the of the of and to euery of them in our County of Greeting. Wee will and command you that you warne, and cause to come xxiiij. honeſt, ſufficient and diſcreete men of your ſaid before the Clerke of the market of our houſhold. through our Realme of England, or his lawfull deputy within the Verge, aſwell within liberties as without. to appeare at vpon being the day of next enſuing the date hereof by eight of the clocke in the morning of the ſame day: Then and there to rate, ceaſſe, and taxe the prices of all kinde of Corne Graine Victualls, Horſemeate Lodging, and other things for the expence of our houſhold and traine in this our Progreſſe as alſo to heare and to doe vpon their ſeuerall Oathes, as they and euery of them ſhall be for vs. and on our behalfe required according to the lawes of our Realme. And moreouer that you giue warning to all Bakers, Brewers, Inholders, Tiplers Tauerners, Mercers Drapers, Chandlers. Butchers, Smithes, Weauers, Millers, Farmers, Corne-ſellers and all other perſons within your ſaid who haue, vſe, or occupy any manner of Weights or Meaſures, ſealed or not ſealed euery of them to appeare with the ſame, the day, houre and place aforeſaid, to ſee them duly examined with our Standard. And then the Bakers perſonally to appeare with their bread of all ſorts, to ſee it weighed for the perfect intelligence of the true aſſize thereof: At which time and place aforeſaid, all your officers to be preſent and attendant to make due returne of this our commandement; together with the names and ſurnames of the aforeſaid Iurors and Artificers in the courte, in due forme of writing, as yee will anſwere to the contrary at your perills. Dated vnder our Seale of the Office aforeſaid the day of in the yeere of our Raigne of England, &c.